June 5 The Art of Networking

How to create transparent connections not just translucent ones.

June 12 Mating, Dating and Relating

Are you still looking for Mr. /Ms. Right? Perhaps a better use of your time would be to ensure that you are Mr. /Ms. Right just in case someone else is looking for him/her too. Simply put, would you date and or be attracted to yourself?

June 19 “If You Don’t Know Where you Are Going You Will Probably End Up Somewhere Else,” by David P. Campbell.

Come explore many of the concepts outlined in the book, participants will gain some practical tips to employ in their everyday lives as we explore the following quotes:

“Your life does not get better by chance, it gets better by change.”

“If you want something to happen in your life, you have to make space for it.”

“If one must take life as it happens, then how can one make it happen the way they want to take it?”

“It is the set of the sails, not the direction of the wind that determines which way we will go.”

June 26 How to be a better advocate for your child with a disability?

As the parent of a student with a disability, you are the child’s most important advocate in the Special Education System. However, it can be hard to advocate, if you don’t really know what there is to ask for. Come get your questions answered and get the answers to other questions. Questions like:

- What’s the difference between a 504 plan and an IEP?
- What is an S.O.P.?
- How does Special Education change over the years? (Early childhood v. grammar school v. high school v. college)
- What is the difference between accommodations and support services?
- Should I have my child evaluated (or, re-evaluated)?

All “Mini-Nars” are 1 hour very interactive sessions. Lunch will be provided from Panera Bread. Space is limited to the first twenty 20–25 people max, to register please go to www.awarenessims.com. The cost is $40 per session. The “Mini-Nars” will be held from 12:15–1:15 p.m. at the Crystal Lake Chamber of Commerce, 427 West Virginia Street, Crystal Lake, IL 60014.
